SHOOTING DRAFT

FADE IN:

1 EXT. NEIGHBORHOOD STREET - ANYTOWN, USA - NIGHT 1

Trees sway in the breeze on a quiet, sleepy cul-de-sac.

That is, except at one home - where all the lights are on, PEOPLE move about frantic, and there's YELLING...

2 INT. BEDROOM - NIGHT 2

A typical middle-class bedroom. Nightstand clock reads 3AM.

WIFE and HUSBAND (30's), both in pajamas, sit diagonally from each other on the bed. They each stare into separate laptops with dark circles under their crazed, bloodshot eyes.

They YELL back and forth as if bidding at the New York stock exchange --

WIFE

Got two hundred for the TV!

Husband stops a moment, looks up.

HUSBAND

Our forty-three inch LED TV?

Husband stares into his laptop with renewed fervor, types--

HUSBAND (CONT'D)

Sold the desk!

Wife stops a moment, looks up.

WIFE

The one my Dad built for my sweet sixteen?

HUSBAND

(shrugs)

We need payments.

VOICE-OVER

Don't let Debtsonnia keep you up at night...

BROTHER (12), nerdy type with glasses, enters the room.

BROTHER

Mom, have you seen my backpack?

Wife looks at Husband, guilty expression.

HUSBAND

Zero to twenty-nine percent on two cards next month and our credit lines keep shrinking.

BROTHER

My homework was in there!

Brother leaves, shakes head with shoulders slumped.

WIFE

(calls after him)

Are you gonna answer when the debt collectors come knocking?

VOICE-OVER

... Does it feel like YOU'RE drowning in debt...

SISTER (15), gossipy type with side ponytail, storms in.

SISTER

Where's my phone?

HUSBAND

(sheepishly)

Were you really using it?

Sister leaves, throws hands up in frustration.

HUSBAND (CONT'D)

Hey! You wanna make late fee payments I'm all for it?!

Wife proudly leaps to her feet --

WIFE

Sold the car!

Husband looks over, in shock. They high-five.

HUSBAND

Nice!

He then delves back into his laptop, with a crazed look in his eye. It is ON. One by one, pieces of furniture in the room disappear during...

VOICE-OVER

(spoken fast)

... Side effects of Debtsomnia include: lack of sleep, restlessness, anxiety, irritability, irrational behavior, increased stress levels, delirium, compulsion, loss of sanity, social isolation, neglecting your kids, skipping work, a complete disregard for family values, disappearing assets AND...

DOG comes in, jumps up and down, tail wags. Husband pets it.

... the loss of unconditional love...

Suddenly, the Dog vanishes from screen.

Husband looks at his Wife, quizzically. Wife shrugs.

4 EXT. SUBURBAN NEIGHBORHOOD FRONT LAWN - LATER - NIGHT

4

Street lights shine down on Husband and Wife. They are on a mattress in the front yard; their house is no longer there.

VOICE-OVER

... Talk to your loved ones and see if National Debt Relief is right for you.

In unison, they look back at where their house used to be.

SLAM TO BLACK.
